

Sixty-seven minutes to make a difference

THE staff of the Passenger Rail Agency of South Africa (PRASA) took to the community on Friday, 13 August, to warm some hearts in the Cape Flats.

As part of commemorating Women's Month, Metrorail and Shosolozza Meyl employees in collaboration with the City of Cape Town's social development department visited two institutions, the Joy Day Care Centre for the disabled in Mitchell's Plain and Sonwabile Day and Night Care Centre in Khayelitsha to hand over collected items from employees.

Some of these items included clothing, toys, shoes and toiletries. This is also part of PRASA's contribution towards the LeadSA initiative which challenges ordinary South Africans to do the right thing on a daily basis and to counter the negative perceptions about the country. The initiative is ongoing and a programme of sustained activities will be rolled out. More information: www.leadsa.co.za

Megan Tompkins

Marketing and Communications

Metrorail Western Cape